

APLAHealth

Ever since AIDS Project Los Angeles first opened its doors in 1983, we have been committed to delivering care to the people who need us most. Today as APLA Health, we help those living with HIV lead the healthiest and fullest lives possible.

← OUR SERVICES

We offer a variety of services primarily for low-income people living with HIV.

Linking individuals to proper health care and support services is a vital component in improving health outcomes for those affected by HIV/AIDS and lowering rates of HIV transmission.
